

Highlights, facts, and news about foreign investment in Asturias during January 2022

IN DEPTH

Salime, from a pioneering hydroelectric power station to a paradigm of the energy transition in Asturias

Several energy companies are proposing hydraulic generation and storage initiatives, taking advantage of existing reservoirs and power plants. Read more.

SUCCESS STORIES

Innovation seeking simplicity to increase productivity, main goal of The Chemours Company offices in Asturias, an extension of this US chemical multinational headquarters located in Wilmington.

Ricoh España, seven years in Asturias to be leaders in digital services. The technology hub of this Japan multinational in Llanera houses more than 300 professionals, experts in the best technologies: “We have the best talent, and we are growing day by day”.

JANUARY IN THE NEWS

The Government of Asturias puts out to tender a contract to strengthen international air connectivity with routes to London, Düsseldorf, Brussels, Rome, Milan, Lisbon and another one to choose between Amsterdam, Frankfurt and Dublin, in addition to the existing route to Paris.

Delfin Tubes manufactures in Gijón a furnace for petrochemical process for Texas. The company made the convection modules for an ethylene cracking furnace. It has manufactured both the pressure part and the metal structure, including the installation of the refractory material and its drying. Some modules exceed 35 meters.

Spanish Government, about to launch the Strategic Project for the Recovery and Economic Transformation (PERTE) of the shipbuilding industry. Asturian shipbuilders say that this PERTE will be cardinal to have a competitive advantage, with sustainability as some of their main goals.

AREAS TO INVEST IN ASTURIAS

Food and Drink, and Energy, are two of the industries where Asturias presents ideal conditions to attract investment. In the new S3 Smart Specialization Strategy for our region, agri-food, and energy and circularity, sectors will be key areas in search for European funds.

invest
asturias

+34 985 980 020

investinasturias@idepa.es

